If financial freedom is the true currency of success, how prepared are you to claim yours?

Most people dream of it, but very few are equipped to achieve it.

Why? Because they lack the right skill, structure, and mindset to grow their money with confidence.

With an aim to build a community of professional and disciplined traders, we believe trading is not about luck or blind speculation. It's a skill that requires knowledge, discipline, and a structured approach. Trading Tatva is established with a single vision to build traders who want to achieve consistent profitability by applying the right methods in the right way. By combining proven strategies, live support, and a systematic approach, we aim to transform aspirants into independent and successful traders.

From The Mentor

- Mr. Anurag Varun

I know what it feels like to step into the markets with hope, only to be met with confusion, fear and losses. I've been there myself. That is why Trading Tatva Academy was built — not to sell dreams, but to show you the reality of trading the right way.

For me, this is not just about charts or strategies. It's about building discipline, patience, and a system that can truly change your financial future. Every class, every session is designed with one goal — to make sure you leave with clarity, not doubt.

*If you are ready to take trading seriously, then I am ready to walk this journey with you — guiding you, correcting you, and most importantly, making sure you never feel lost in the market again. This is not just a course; it's a partnership in your growth as a trader.

FAQs

01 What is the duration of the Equity Mastery Traders Program?

The program spans 3 months, divided into two stages:

- Foundation Track – Focuses on building a strong foundation in trading.
- Strategy Track – Delves into expert-level concepts and strategies.

02 Do you teach Price Action?

Absolutely! All our trading strategies are purely based on Price Action, ensuring that you learn to make decisions based on market behavior rather than relying solely on indicators.

03 Is this course suitable for beginners?

Yes, the Equity Mastery Traders Program is structured from basic to advanced levels in clear language, making it easy even for beginners without financial backgrounds to understand and apply the concepts.

04 What support is provided during the course?

We offer comprehensive support, including:

- Live Q&A Sessions – Interact directly with our mentors to clarify your doubts.
- Revision Classes – Multiple revision classes to help you cover any topic you miss in your live class.
- Email Support – Send your doubts to Email and receive resolutions promptly

05 How can I enroll in the course?

To enroll, fill out the registration form on our website. After submitting the form, our team will contact you to discuss the admission process and guide you through the next steps.

06 What makes this course different from others?

Equity Mastery Traders Program stands out because it focuses entirely on live sessions, giving you real-time interaction with expert mentor and immediate guidance. Unlike other courses that rely on pre-recorded videos, we ensure you learn, practice, and clarify doubts live, making your learning experience more engaging, practical, and effective.

07 What are the prerequisites for joining this course?

There are no specific prerequisites. The course is designed for individuals at all levels, from beginners to experienced traders. A basic understanding of financial markets can be helpful, but is not mandatory.

08 Can I access the course materials after completion?

Yes, you will have access to recorded classes, revision materials, and other resources even after completing the course, allowing you to revisit and reinforce your learning.
